

The Blockade Runner Beach Resort
Presents
A Walk in the Garden with Felder Rushing
April 28 & 29, 2010

Felder Rushing is a 10th-generation Southern gardener whose articles and photographs have been featured in many magazines, including Southern Living, Garden Design, Horticulture, Landscape Architecture, House and Garden, Better Homes and Gardens, the New York Times, and others. Rushing has studied gardens around the world and our own continent. He has appeared on HGTV and the Discovery Channel. Believing that too many of his fellow horticulturists complicate things unnecessarily, Felder says that we are "daunted, not dumb." He has spent a lifetime trying to make gardening as easy as it is fun.
